"Sec. 101. RCW 28A.655.071 and 2010 c 235 s 601 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (~~By August 2, 2010,~~) The superintendent of public instruction may revise the state essential academic learning requirements authorized under RCW 28A.655.070 for mathematics, reading, writing, and communication by ((provisionally)) adopting a common set of standards for students in grades kindergarten through twelve. The revised state essential academic learning requirements may be substantially identical with the standards developed by a multistate consortium in which Washington participated, must be consistent with the requirements of RCW 28A.655.070, and may include additional standards if the additional standards do not exceed fifteen percent of the standards for each content area. However, the superintendent of public instruction shall not take steps to implement the ((provisionally)) adopted standards ((until the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate have an opportunity to review the standards)) before the end of the regular session of the 2013 legislature.

(2) By January 1, (~~(2011)~~) 2013, the superintendent of public instruction shall submit to the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate:

(a) A detailed comparison of the ((provisionally)) adopted standards and the state essential academic learning requirements as of June 10, 2010, ((including the comparative level of rigor and specificity of the standards and the implications of any identified differences)) that clearly outlines the differences, describes the instructional implications of those differences, and provides practical information that teachers can use to align curriculum and adapt instruction, with an equal emphasis on the standards for English language arts and mathematics; and

(b) An estimated timeline and costs to the state and to school districts to implement the ((provisionally)) adopted standards in both English language arts and in mathematics, including providing necessary training, realignment of curriculum, adjustment of state assessments, and other actions.

(3) The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall provide an ongoing and open forum for public recommendations to enhance the standards adopted under this section, particularly in mathematics, as well as any common standards developed and proposed for science.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction may implement the revisions to the essential academic learning requirements under this section after the ((2011)) 2013 legislative session ((unless otherwise directed by the legislature))."

On page 9, after line 23, insert the following:

"Sec. 105. RCW 28A.150.220 and 2009 c 548 s 104 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In order for students to have the opportunity to develop the basic education knowledge and skills under RCW 28A.150.210, school districts must provide instruction of sufficient quantity and quality and give students the opportunity to complete graduation requirements that are intended to prepare them for postsecondary education, gainful employment, and citizenship. The program established under this section shall be the minimum instructional program of basic education offered by school districts.

(2) Each school district shall make available to students the following minimum instructional offering each school year:

(a) For students enrolled in grades one through twelve, at least a district-wide annual average of one thousand hours, which shall be increased to at least one thousand eighty instructional hours for students enrolled in each of grades seven through twelve and at least one thousand instructional hours for students in each of grades one through six according to an implementation schedule adopted by the legislature but not before the 2014-15 school year; and

(b) For students enrolled in kindergarten, at least four hundred fifty instructional hours, which shall be increased to at least one thousand instructional hours according to the implementation schedule under RCW 28A.150.315.

(3) The instructional program of basic education provided by each school district shall include:

(a) Instruction in the essential academic learning requirements under RCW 28A.655.070;

(b) Instruction that provides students the opportunity to complete twenty-four credits for high school graduation, subject to a phased-in implementation of the twenty-four credits as established by the legislature. Course distribution requirements may be established by the state board of education under RCW 28A.230.090;

(c) If the essential academic learning requirements include a requirement of languages other than English, the requirement may be met by students receiving instruction in one or more American Indian languages;

(d) Supplemental instruction and services for underachieving students through the learning assistance program under RCW 28A.165.005 through 28A.165.065;

(e) Supplemental instruction and services for eligible and enrolled students whose primary language is other than English through the transitional bilingual instruction program under RCW 28A.180.010 through 28A.180.080;

(f) The opportunity for an appropriate education at public expense as defined by RCW 28A.155.020 for all eligible students with disabilities as defined in RCW 28A.155.020; and

(g) Programs for highly capable students under RCW 28A.185.010 through 28A.185.030.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require individual students to attend school for any particular number of hours per day or to take any particular courses.

(5) Each school district's kindergarten through twelfth grade basic educational program shall be accessible to all students who are five years of age, as provided by RCW 28A.225.160, and less than twenty-one years of age and shall consist of a minimum of one hundred eighty school days per school year in such grades as are conducted by a school district, and one hundred eighty half-days of instruction, or equivalent, in kindergarten, to be increased to a minimum of one hundred eighty school days per school year according to the implementation schedule under RCW 28A.150.315. However, effective May 1, 1979, a school district may schedule the last five school days of the one hundred and eighty day school year for noninstructional purposes in the case of students who are graduating from high school, including, but not limited to, the observance of graduation and early release from school upon the request of a student, and all such students may be claimed as a full-time equivalent student to the extent they could otherwise have been so claimed for the purposes of RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260.

(6) Nothing in this section precludes a school district from enriching the instructional program of basic education, such as offering additional instruction or providing additional services, programs, or activities that the school district determines to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students.

(7) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement and ensure compliance with the program requirements imposed by this section, RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260, and such related supplemental program approval requirements as the state board may establish."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly. Correct the title.

Representative Frockt moved the adoption of amendment (227).

On page 1, at the beginning of line 4, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1)The legislature finds that some licensed child care centers seeking to operate in publicly owned or operated buildings, such as public schools or municipal centers, incur substantial costs to renovate spaces which have otherwise been deemed safe for children to use for other purposes, such as public education. Consequently, families have been forced to seek before or after school child care outside of the school building, resulting in additional transitions for students.

(2)It is the legislature's intent to allow licensed child care centers to operate in facilities that have otherwise been deemed safe and healthy for children to use for other purposes, such as public education. With respect to section 2(2) of this act, the legislature intends that the development of any related child care licensing requirements shall:

- (a)Ensure safe and healthy environments for children;
- (b)Utilize existing rule making processes and resources;
- (c)Utilize existing requirements as a starting point rather than create an entirely new set of requirements; and
- (d)Not overburden child care centers with additional licensing requirements."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 1, beginning on line 16, after "(2)" strike all material through "buildings" on page 2, line 4 and insert "In consultation with the state fire marshal's office, the director shall use an interagency process to address requirements for child care centers operated in publicly owned or operated buildings, such as public schools or municipal centers, in which there are existing prekindergarten or school age educational programs"

HOUSE BILL NO. 2003, by Representatives Pettigrew, Hunter, Ryu and Kenney

Concerning premium payments for children's health coverage for certain families who are not eligible for federal children's health insurance coverage.

The bill was read the second time.

Representative Alexander moved the adoption of amendment (203).

On page 4, line 8, after "program," insert the following:

"If an act of the legislature sets income eligibility for children who are not eligible for coverage under the federally funded children's health insurance program or medicaid at a level below three hundred percent of the federal poverty level, the department shall continue to provide coverage to children with family incomes between the new income standard and three hundred percent of the federal poverty level if the families pay premiums in an amount equal to the per capita cost of coverage under the state-funded children's health program."

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Van De Wege requested a scope and object ruling on amendment (203) to House Bill No. 2003.

SPEAKER'S RULING

Madame Speaker (Representative Orwall presiding): The title of House Bill 2003 is narrow, "an act relating to premium payments for children's health coverage for children in families with income greater than two hundred percent of the federal poverty level who are not eligible for the federal children's health insurance program." Amendment 203 concerns premium payments for children whose family income is below three hundred percent of the federal poverty level. Because the amendment applies to income below two hundred percent of the federal poverty level and the title limits the bill to income greater than two hundred percent, the amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. The point of order is well taken.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Pettigrew, Alexander and Hinkle spoke in favor of the passage of the bill.

The Speaker (Representative Orwall presiding) stated the question before the House to be the final passage of House Bill No. 2003.

(a) For an alien offender in the custody of the department on or after the effective date of this section who is subject to a final order of removal or exclusion, the sentencing court, pursuant to a request from the department, shall issue an order conditionally releasing the offender to the immigration and customs enforcement agency if the department has given the offender: (i) Thirty days notice that the department intends to seek conditional release to the immigration and customs enforcement agency; and (ii) reasonable access to communicate with consular officials, legal services organizations, and counsel of the offender's choice, at no expense to the state.

(b) For an alien offender sentenced on or after the effective date of this section, the sentencing court shall issue an order permitting the department to conditionally release the offender to the immigration and customs enforcement agency upon entry of a final order of removal. Prior to issuing the order, the sentencing court shall determine that defense counsel has advised the offender of the right to contest removal and the availability of avenues of relief from removal that he or she may be entitled to pursue before immigration authorities. If the offender is proceeding pro se, the court shall advise the offender that the offender may be subject to conditional release to the immigration and customs enforcement agency, that the offender has the right to contest removal, and that the offender may be entitled to relief from removal.

(3) No offender may be released under this section unless the immigration and customs enforcement agency confirms to the department that it can and will implement the order of removal.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 9.94A.685 and 1993 c 419 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the limitations of this section, any alien offender committed to the custody of the department under the sentencing reform act of 1981, chapter 9.94A RCW, who has been found by the United States attorney general to be subject to a final order of deportation or exclusion, may be placed on conditional release status and released to the immigration and ~~((naturalization service))~~ customs enforcement agency for deportation at any time prior to the expiration of the offender's term of confinement. The legal determination and deportation is an activity of the federal government exclusively. Neither the department nor its staff shall be delegated nor shall the department or its staff assume a decision-making role in this process. Conditional release shall continue until the expiration of the statutory maximum sentence provided by law for the crime or crimes of which the offender was convicted. If the offender has multiple current convictions, the statutory maximum sentence allowed by law for each crime shall run concurrently.

(2) Offenders placed on conditional release status from Washington state correctional facilities are in a program specific to Washington. Placement on conditional release status does not constitute participation in the immigration and customs enforcement agency's rapid removal of eligible parolees accepted for transfer program.

~~(3) No offender may be released under this section unless:~~

~~(a) The secretary or the secretary's designee ~~((find [finds] that such release is in the best interests of the state of Washington. Further, releases under this section may occur only with the approval of the sentencing court and the prosecuting attorney of the county of conviction))~~ has confirmed that the detention facilities in Washington state operated by the immigration and customs enforcement agency, or operated under contract with the immigration and customs enforcement agency, have written guidelines in place that comport with the international and domestic human rights laws regarding the detention of offenders, due process, and personnel training and that these facilities meet Washington state and federal constitutional standards for correctional facilities;~~

~~(b) The immigration and customs enforcement agency will permit the secretary of the department or his or her designee to periodically review the conditions and procedures at its facilities, including due process, personnel training, and the treatment of detained offenders, as they affect offenders placed on conditional release status;~~

~~(c) The secretary or the secretary's designee has reached an agreement with the immigration and customs enforcement agency that the alien offender placed on conditional release status will be detained in total confinement at a facility operated by the immigration and customs enforcement agency pending the offender's return to the country of origin or other location designated in the final deportation or exclusion order;~~

(d) The alien offender, prior to stipulating to an order of removal prior to the issuance of a final deportation order by the United States attorney general, has been provided access to information regarding his or her due process rights and has had an opportunity to consult with an attorney or legal representative; and

(e) The secretary or the secretary's designee finds that such release is in the best interests of the state of Washington.

(4) If the secretary determines that state or federal constitutional standards are not being met at the detention facilities described in this section, the secretary shall immediately report the same to the governor and the legislature and shall immediately refrain from releasing offenders pursuant to this section.

(5) The secretary, in consultation with a representative from an immigration legal advocacy organization, shall report biannually to the governor and the legislature regarding the substance of the secretary's review described in subsection (3)(b) of this section and any conclusions and recommendations made pursuant to that review. Such report shall make recommendations for modifications of policies or procedures, if appropriate. The first report shall be due on December 10, 2011.

~~((3))~~ (6) No offender may be released under this section who is serving a sentence for a violent offense or sex offense, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, or any other offense that is a crime against a person.

~~((4))~~ (7) The unserved portion of the term of confinement of any offender released under this section shall be tolled at the time the offender is released to the immigration and ~~((naturalization service))~~ customs enforcement agency for deportation. Upon the release of an offender to the immigration and ~~((naturalization service))~~ customs enforcement agency, the department shall issue a warrant for the offender's arrest within the United States. This warrant shall remain in effect until the expiration of the offender's conditional release.

~~((5))~~ (8) Upon arrest of an offender, the department shall, upon making a finding that it is in the best interest of the state, seek extradition as necessary and the offender ~~((shall))~~ may be returned to the department for completion of the unserved portion of the offender's term of total confinement. If returned, the offender shall also be required to fully comply with all the terms and conditions of the sentence.

~~((6))~~ (9) Alien offenders released to the immigration and ~~((naturalization service))~~ customs enforcement agency for deportation under this section are not thereby relieved of their obligation to pay restitution or other legal financial obligations ordered by the sentencing court.

~~((7))~~ (10) Any offender released pursuant to this section who returns illegally to the United States may not thereafter be released again pursuant to this section.

~~((8))~~ (11) The secretary is authorized to take all reasonable actions to implement this section and shall assist federal authorities in prosecuting alien offenders who may illegally reenter the United States and enter the state of Washington."

(a) The regular levy of the district under RCW 52.16.130 shall not exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of taxable property in the district less the amount of any levy imposed by the authority under RCW 52.26.140(1)(a);

(b) The levy of the district under RCW 52.16.140 shall not exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of taxable property in the district less the amount of any levy imposed by the authority under RCW 52.26.140(1)(b); and

(c) The levy of the district under RCW 52.16.160 shall not exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of taxable property in the district less the amount of any levy imposed by the authority under RCW 52.26.140(1)(c).

(2) If a city or town is a participating fire protection jurisdiction in a regional fire protection service authority, the regular levies of the city or town shall not exceed the applicable rates provided in RCW 27.12.390, 52.04.081, and 84.52.043(1) less the aggregate rates of any regular levies made by the authority under RCW 52.26.140(1).

(3) If a port district is a participating fire protection jurisdiction in a regional fire protection service authority, the regular levy of the port district under RCW 53.36.020 shall not exceed forty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of taxable property in the district less the aggregate rates of any regular levies imposed by the authority under RCW 52.26.140(1).

(4) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Fire protection jurisdiction" means a fire protection district, city, town, Indian tribe, or port district; and

(b) "Participating fire protection jurisdiction" means a fire protection district, city, town, Indian tribe, or port district that is represented on the governing board of a regional fire protection service authority or annexed into a regional fire protection service authority."
