
FIFTY THIRD DAY

House Chamber, Olympia, Thursday, March 3, 2011

The House was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by the Speaker (Representative Moeller presiding). The Clerk called the roll and a quorum was present.

The flags were escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Joseph Thompson and Sammie Mesman. The Speaker (Representative Moeller presiding) led the Chamber in the Pledge of Allegiance. The prayer was offered by Pastor John Rosenberg, Lutheran Church of the Good Sheppard, Olympia Washington.

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

RESOLUTIONHOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2011-4634, by Representatives Pearson and Kristiansen

WHEREAS, Granite Falls High School formed an all-female team to build and race a fuel efficient prototype car named "iron maiden"; and

WHEREAS, They received funding through a Perkins nontraditional grant as a STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) project; and

WHEREAS, The team, known as the "Shopgirls," built their car in six months with the guidance of instructor Michael Werner and help from many community volunteers; and

WHEREAS, The "Shopgirls" won their diesel category in the 2010 Shell Eco-marathon Americas competition in Houston, Texas with an amazing 470 miles per gallon and received 1,000 dollars in prize money; and

WHEREAS, The team has been invited to present at local events, private technology and manufacturing companies, regional conferences such as MTAG, the Green Expo and Imagine the Future, business and community organizations, and other schools regarding their experiences; and

WHEREAS, Washington State and the "Shopgirls" were recognized in a speech by United States Secretary of Education Arne Duncan, on February 2, 2011, as "one of his favorite examples of the new CTE" in America where students are preparing for 21st Century careers through rigorous and relevant high school Career and Technical Education programs; and

WHEREAS, Female students are choosing careers in engineering fields and gaining access to major universities as a result of successful experiences in this extraordinary project;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives honor the outstanding efforts put forth by the "Shopgirls."

The Speaker (Representative Moeller presiding) stated the question before the House to be adoption of House Resolution No. 4634.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4634 was adopted.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.30 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The board on geographic names is created. The board is composed of:

(a) The state librarian or the librarian's designee;

(b) The commissioner of public lands or the commissioner's designee;

(c) The director of the department of archaeology and historic preservation or the director's designee; and

(d) Four members from the general public to be appointed by the legislature, one member each by each caucus of the senate and one member each by each caucus of the house of representatives.

The commissioner of public lands or his or her designee shall be chairperson of the board.

(2) The initial members appointed under subsection (1) (d) of this section shall be appointed as follows: One member for a one-year term, one member for a two-year term, one member for a three-year term, and one member for a four-year term. The initial terms of the members shall be selected by lot. Thereafter, each member shall be appointed for a three-year term. Each member shall continue in office until a successor is appointed.

(3) The board on geographic names has the power and authority to:

(a) Establish the official names for the lakes, mountains, streams, places, towns, and other geographic features within the state and the spellings thereof except when a name is specified by law. For the purposes of this subsection, geographic features do not include human-made features or administrative areas such as parks, game reserves, and dams, but does include human-made lakes;

(b) Assign names to lakes, mountains, streams, places, towns, and other geographic features in the state for which no generally accepted name has been in use;

(c) Cooperate with county commissions, state departments, agencies, the state legislature, and the United States board on geographic names to establish, change, or determine the appropriate names of lakes, mountains, streams, places, towns, and other geographic features for the purposes of eliminating, as far as possible, duplications of place names within the state;

(d) Serve as a state of Washington liaison with the United States board on geographic names; and

(e) Periodically issue a list of names approved by the board on geographic names.

(4) The department of natural resources shall provide secretarial and administrative services for the board on geographic names and shall serve as custodian of the records.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.30 RCW to read as follows: The board on geographic names is authorized to establish policies to carry out the purposes of sections 1 and 2 of this act.

(1) In determining the names and spellings of geographic place names within the state of Washington, the board on geographic name's decisions may only be made after a careful consideration of all available information relating to such names, including the recommendations of the United States board on geographic names.

(2) The board on geographic names shall cooperate with the United States board on geographic names.

(3) Adoption of names by the board on geographic names may take place only after consideration, including public testimony, at a previous meeting.

(4) All board on geographic name's determinations must be filed with the code reviser and must be compiled and indexed in the same manner as agency rules under RCW 34.05.210. Determinations by the board on geographic names are not considered a rule under RCW 34.05.210.

(5) Whenever the board on geographic names has given a name to any lake, stream, place, or other geographic feature within the state, the name must be used in all maps, records, documents, and other publications issued by the state or any of its departments and political subdivisions, and that name is the official name of the geographic feature."

(1) A person is guilty of harassment if:

(a) Without lawful authority, the person knowingly threatens:

(i) To cause bodily injury immediately or in the future to the person threatened or to any other person; or

(ii) To cause physical damage to the property of a person other than the actor; or

(iii) To subject the person threatened or any other person to physical confinement or restraint; or

(iv) Maliciously to do any other act which is intended to substantially harm the person threatened or another with respect to his or her physical or mental health or safety; and

(b) The person by words or conduct places the person threatened in reasonable fear that the threat will be carried out. "Words or conduct" includes, in addition to any other form of communication or conduct, the sending of an electronic communication.

(2)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, a person who harasses another is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) A person who harasses another is guilty of a class C felony if ~~(either)~~ any of the following ~~((applies))~~ apply: (i) The person has previously been convicted in this or any other state of any crime of harassment, as defined in RCW 9A.46.060, of the same victim or members of the victim's family or household or any person specifically named in a no-contact or no-harassment order; ~~((or))~~ (ii) the person harasses another person under subsection (1)(a)(i) of this section by threatening to kill the person threatened or any other person; (iii) the person harasses a criminal justice participant who is performing his or her official duties at the time the threat is made; or (iv) the person harasses a criminal justice participant because of an action taken or decision made by the criminal justice participant during the performance of his or her official duties.

(3) Any criminal justice participant who is a target for threats or harassment prohibited under subsection (2)(b)(iii) or (iv) of this section, and any family members residing with him or her, shall be eligible for the address confidentiality program created under RCW 40.24.030.

(4) For purposes of this section, a criminal justice participant includes any (a) federal, state, or local law enforcement agency employee; (b) federal, state, or local prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney; (c) staff member of any adult corrections institution or local adult detention facility; (d) staff member of any juvenile corrections institution or local juvenile detention facility; (e) community corrections officer, probation, or parole officer; (f) member of the indeterminate sentence review board; (g) advocate from a crime victim/witness program; or (h) defense attorney.

(5) The penalties provided in this section for harassment do not preclude the victim from seeking any other remedy otherwise available under law.

Sec. 2. RCW 40.24.030 and 2008 c 312 s 3 and 2008 c 18 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) An adult person, a parent or guardian acting on behalf of a minor, or a guardian acting on behalf of an incapacitated person, as defined in RCW 11.88.010, and (b) any criminal justice participant as defined in RCW 9A.46.020 who is a target for threats or harassment prohibited under RCW 9A.46.020(2)(b)(iii) or (iv), and any family members residing with him or her, may apply to the secretary of state to have an address designated by the secretary of state serve as the person's address or the address of the minor or incapacitated person. The secretary of state shall approve an application if it is filed in the manner and on the form prescribed by the secretary of state and if it contains:

~~((a))~~ (i) A sworn statement, under penalty of perjury, by the applicant that the applicant has good reason to believe ~~((that))~~ (A) that the applicant, or the minor or incapacitated person on whose behalf the application is made, is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, trafficking, or stalking((:)) and ((that)) that the applicant fears for his or her safety or his or her children's safety, or the safety of the minor or incapacitated person on whose behalf the application is made; or (B) that the applicant, as a criminal justice participant as defined in RCW 9A.46.020, is a target for threats or harassment prohibited under RCW 9A.46.020(2)(b)(iii) or (iv);

~~((b))~~ (ii) If applicable, a sworn statement, under penalty of perjury, by the applicant, that the applicant has reason to believe they are a victim of (A) domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking perpetrated by an employee of a law enforcement agency, or (B) threats or harassment prohibited under RCW 9A.46.020(2)(b)(iii) or (iv);

~~((c))~~ (iii) A designation of the secretary of state as agent for purposes of service of process and for the purpose of receipt of mail;

~~((d))~~ (iv) The residential address and any telephone number where the applicant can be contacted by the secretary of state, which shall not be disclosed because disclosure will increase the risk of (A) domestic violence, sexual assault, trafficking, or stalking, or (B) threats or harassment prohibited under RCW 9A.46.020(2)(b)(iii) or (iv);

~~((e))~~ (v) The signature of the applicant and of any individual or representative of any office designated in writing under RCW 40.24.080 who assisted in the preparation of the application, and the date on which the applicant signed the application.

(2) Applications shall be filed with the office of the secretary of state.

(3) Upon filing a properly completed application, the secretary of state shall certify the applicant as a program participant. Applicants shall be certified for four years following the date of filing unless the certification is withdrawn or invalidated before that date. The secretary of state shall by rule establish a renewal procedure.

(4) A person who knowingly provides false or incorrect information upon making an application or falsely attests in an application that disclosure of the applicant's address would endanger (a) the applicant's safety or the safety of the applicant's children or the minor or incapacitated person on whose behalf the application is made, or ((who knowingly provides false or incorrect information upon making an application)) (b) the safety of any criminal justice participant as defined in RCW 9A.46.020 who is a target for threats or harassment prohibited under RCW 9A.46.020(2)(b)(iii) or (iv), or any family members residing with him or her, shall be ((punishable)) punished under RCW 40.16.030 or other applicable statutes."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature recognizes that land use planning actions deliberated in and approved and mitigated by one jurisdiction can significantly affect one or more neighboring jurisdictions. The impacts of the land use planning actions of a neighboring jurisdiction can be especially pronounced when geographic and public infrastructure limitations substantially affect permitted development and the resulting impacts upon neighboring jurisdictions.

(2) The legislature, therefore, in the spirit of cooperation and collaboration, intends to promote shared responsibilities under the state environmental policy act in those extraordinary instances where geographic and public infrastructure limitations create circumstances in which the land use planning actions of one jurisdiction significantly impact one or more neighboring jurisdictions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.21C RCW to read as follows:

(1)(a) If a proposed project action significantly impacts two or more agencies, the agencies, except as provided otherwise by this section, must jointly divide all lead agency responsibilities prescribed in accordance with this chapter.

(b) If the agencies are unable to agree to the division of lead agency responsibilities, the director shall designate the division of responsibilities within fifteen days of receiving a written request to do so by one or more agency. Designations made by the director under this subsection must identify the lead agency for each segment of the proposed project action based on a determination of which agency's facilities and residents will receive the majority of the impacts from that segment of the proposed project action.

(2) An agency that would be significantly impacted by a proposed project action may elect to:

(a) Forego lead agency responsibilities otherwise required under this section by notifying in writing the other affected agency or agencies and the department; or

(b) Transfer lead agency responsibilities otherwise required under this section to another agency through a written agreement approved by both agencies and transmitted to the department.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) of this section apply only to project actions in or affecting unincorporated portions of urban growth areas designated under RCW 36.70A.110 that:

(a) Border Puget Sound;

(b) Are surrounded on the landward side entirely by one or more cities;

(c) Are one or more miles from any other portion of an urban growth area that is in unincorporated territory; and

(d) Are fifty or more acres in size.

(4) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, for purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Agency" or "agencies" means a county, city, or town;

(b) "Department" means the department of ecology; and

(c) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology."
