The motion by Senator Rivers carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Jayapal, the President would note that whoever advised you that this would not constitute your first speech might confer with the President in the future. The President believes that it had all of the components of a profound and thought-provoking message. And the President would further remind you, Senator Jayapal, that to maybe do a little checking on who advises you in the future. And further, that it is the custom of the senate to be compensated, having to tolerate your long, albeit thoughtful, speech in the future. I will leave it to the senate and your colleagues to decide whether it qualifies as your first speech. I, however, I would say it does.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fain: “Thank you Mr. President. Sending my sincere apologies to the august leader of this Chamber for providing that advice to the member. Though, I did provide an additional piece of advice when it came to the gift giving which was: Please make sure you have fifty because when you leave out the Lieutenant Governor you never get recognized again.”

Senator Fraser announced a meeting of the Senate Democratic Caucus immediately upon the senate going at ease.

Senator Parlette announced a meeting of the Senate Majority Coalition Caucus immediately upon the senate going at ease.

MOTION

At 12:28 p.m., on motion of Senator Fain, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the call of the President.

The Senate was called to order at 1:35 p.m. by President Owen.

MOTION

At 1:36 p.m., on motion of Senator Fain, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 noon, Tuesday, January 20, 2015.

BRAD OWEN, President of the Senate

HUNTER G. GOODMAN, Secretary of the Senate
