SENATE RESOLUTION

8720

By Senators Dinsel, Litzow, Ericksen, Sheldon, Carlyle, Hasegawa, Hobbs, Chase, Takko, Billig, Conway, Fraser, Dammeier, Honeyford, Jayapal, and Pedersen

WHEREAS, A teacher in a small rural school district is often presented with unique challenges, expectations, and opportunities of the type not typically experienced in urban districts; and

WHEREAS, Catherine Diane Wilson has spent her entire 37-year career as a teacher in rural districts, with the first 7 years at J.L. Crowe Secondary School in Trail, British Columbia, followed by 30 consecutive years in the neighboring Northport School District in Stevens County; and

WHEREAS, Through the course of her career, Ms. Wilson has posted some varied and remarkable achievements, including starting the first boys' volleyball team at Northport High, and organizing and leading a month long trip to Europe in 1997 for 11 students--after first having to raise $14,000 through a community wide effort to cover travel expenses; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wilson was the force behind the North Port

Pioneer, the first and only student-generated newspaper at Northport High, which she managed and nurtured for 15 years; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wilson invigorated the drama/theater and performing arts program during a time when other arts programs in the district were getting cut, and for many years was one of the instigators of the famous teacher Christmas skits; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wilson once caused a very surprised truck driver to swerve and hit a guardrail after he saw her riding down the street on her bicycle wearing a Teletubby costume for school spirit week; and

WHEREAS, With the assistance of a retired local newspaper editor, Ms. Wilson produced a video that showed antiquated school supplies and infrastructure at Northport, featuring textbooks with lice in the seams, moldy walls and carpeting, asbestos-coated ceilings, and a female school bus driver chaining up in the mud; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wilson then shared the video with the late Senator Bob Morton to show to the Legislature as a way of seeking funding for rural schools that would be less reliant on matching levies; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wilson has spent her career teaching in a number of disciplines, including French, English, and filling in wherever needed while promoting health, fitness, and the expanded use of technology; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wilson is retiring this June after a long and enjoyable career that made a huge difference in the lives of many Northport students;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate honor the career of Catherine Diane Wilson as a living example of the kind of devotion, commitment, and dedication that all teachers in rural districts in Washington face through the course of their careers; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Superintendent of the Northport School District in the honor of Ms. Wilson's distinguished teaching career.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Dansel: "I was required to get six signatures on this resolution. Evidently, there's a rule that we have to get six signatures and present that to the floor leader. I'm wondering if that's an actual rule that we voted on? When did that become part of the rules? It seems pretty ridiculous to me that I couldn't present a resolution honoring a school teacher from Northport, Washington without getting six signatures. I didn't think it was too controversial. When did this become a rule and did we vote on it?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Dansel, I can answer your question as far as the Senate Rules go. As far as the Senate Rules go, there is absolutely no rule that requires six signatures for any measure to be introduced to the Senate. It takes simply one signature of a senator. It may be a policy issue, but it is simply not an issue that is a rule of the senate."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rolfes: "Thank you, Mr. President. I just wanted to say we would have accepted his resolution with just one signature."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dansel: "I'd like to thank the good lady from the 23rd District. I didn't think it was too big of a deal."

(11) Conditions of probation. (a) In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferrable jail sentence required by this section, whenever the court imposes up to three hundred sixty-four days in jail, the court shall also suspend but shall not defer a period of confinement for a period not exceeding five years. The court shall impose conditions of probation that include: (i) Not driving a motor vehicle within this state without a valid license to drive; (ii) not driving a motor vehicle within this state without proof of liability insurance or other financial responsibility for the future pursuant to RCW 46.30.020; (iii) not driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while having an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more or a THC concentration of 5.00 nanograms per milliliter of whole blood or higher, within two hours after driving; (iv) not refusing to submit to a test of his or her breath or blood to determine alcohol or drug concentration upon request of a law enforcement officer who has reasonable grounds to believe the person was driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drug; and (v) not driving a motor vehicle in this state without a functioning ignition interlock device as required by the department under RCW 46.20.720(3). The court may impose conditions of probation that include nonrepetition, installation of an ignition interlock device on the probationer's motor vehicle, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of probation during the suspension period.

(b) For each violation of mandatory conditions of probation under (a)(i), (ii), (iii), (iv), or (v) of this subsection, the court shall order the convicted person to be confined for thirty days, which shall not be suspended or deferred.

(c) For each incident involving a violation of a mandatory condition of probation imposed under this subsection, the license, permit, or privilege to drive of the person shall be suspended by the court for thirty days or, if such license, permit, or privilege to drive already is suspended, revoked, or denied at the time the finding of probation violation is made, the suspension, revocation, or denial then in effect shall be extended by thirty days. The court shall notify the department of any suspension, revocation, or denial or any extension of a suspension, revocation, or denial imposed under this subsection.

(12) Waiver of electronic home monitoring. A court may waive the electronic home monitoring requirements of this chapter when:

(a) The offender does not have a dwelling, telephone service, or any other necessity to operate an electronic home monitoring system. However, if a court determines that an alcohol monitoring device utilizing wireless reporting technology is reasonably available, the court may require the person to obtain such a device during the period of required electronic home monitoring;

(b) The offender does not reside in the state of Washington; or

(c) The court determines that there is reason to believe that the offender would violate the conditions of the electronic home monitoring penalty.

Whenever the mandatory minimum term of electronic home monitoring is waived, the court shall state in writing the reason for granting the waiver and the facts upon which the waiver is based, and shall impose an alternative sentence with similar punitive consequences. The alternative sentence may include, but is not limited to, use of an ignition interlock device, the 24/7 sobriety program monitoring, additional jail time, work crew, or work camp.

Whenever the combination of jail time and electronic home monitoring or alternative sentence would exceed three hundred sixty-four days, the offender shall serve the jail portion of the sentence first, and the electronic home monitoring or alternative portion of the sentence shall be reduced so that the combination does not exceed three hundred sixty-four days.

(13) Extraordinary medical placement. An offender serving a sentence under this section, whether or not a mandatory minimum term has expired, may be granted an extraordinary medical placement by the jail administrator subject to the standards and limitations set forth in RCW 9.94A.728(1)(c).

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Liias: "Thank you, Mr. President. There have been several floor speeches that have referenced the House budget but have called it the other budget or budgets swirling around the rotunda. Is that permitted under the Senate Rules if we just don't use the word House? Or should we avoid references to the House?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "A duck by any other name is still the House of Representatives. You can call it whatever you want, it's still the House of Representatives and it's still prohibited. The rule actually references the actions of the other body and how it might influence what you do. That's what's not allowed. You can say the House of Representatives until you turn blue. But when you start referencing the House of Representatives and their actions

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Billig: "A point of personal privilege."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Please state your point of personal privilege."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Billig: "Or maybe a point of order, I'm not sure which."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "We'll sort it out for you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Billig: "I'll throw it out there and you can let me know. I wanted to explain for the people watching at home that that amendment to prevent the funding cut was voted by a majority of this body, 25 people voted yes of the 49 senators. So a majority of the senators representing a majority of the people of this state voted yes on that amendment. But, because of a rule put in place by the majority of the Senate, a majority putting in the super majority requirement. I think it's important to know because it could be confusing."

Multiple demands for a point of order were made.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "There is nothing to make a point of order on at this point that I can tell, unless you can explain it to me. Right now it's a point of personal privilege."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Billig: "Yes, thank you. I just want to say it's a minority of the Senators representing a minority of the state that blocked that because of the super majority requirement that has been put in place. In actuality, and if we were ruled by a simple majority of this body, the citizens of this state, the majority of the citizens of this state, represented by their Senators, would have prevented this funding cut to our school districts and our kids. Thank you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Let me explain: Unless he is impugning your motives, he is not out of order."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Schoesler: "Before we voted, a member stated that this was a two-thirds vote. It was not a two-thirds vote, it's a sixty percent majority in the Senate rules."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fain: "I like Senator Billig's tie."

[Editor's Note: Pursuant to Rule 33, any senator may rise to a question of privilege and explain a personal matter but shall not discuss any pending question in such explanations.]

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Baumgartner: "Just wanted to remind the viewers at home, the majority of this body also voted for a two-thirds requirement on the threshold to raise taxes and that nearly every district in the state supported that super majority, two-thirds. Unfortunately, we were unable to get that majority requirement to hang as a rule here in the Senate, but I do like the fact that we do have super majorities to do things as a basic rule. It's just important for the people back home to know that."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "You may have been impugning my motives on that one, I'm not sure. (Laughter) I'll take that under consideration."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Frockt: "I would just like to remind the viewers that that two-thirds rule is what it takes when you have a constitutional amendment was put in 100 years ago by the founders of this state in the constitution. So that two-thirds rule that was just referred to is a constitutional requirement. That is far different than what we have on the floor of the Senate."
