

THIRTY SIXTH DAY

NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia
Monday, February 18, 2019

The Senate was called to order at 12:04 p.m. by the President of the Senate, Lt. Governor Habib presiding. No roll call was taken.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard consisting of Pages Miss Michele Jimenez and Miss Denisa Zerivakova, presented the Colors.

Page Mr. Kelan McGrady led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Pastor Arthur C. Banks of Eastside Baptist Church, Tacoma offered the prayer.

The President called upon the Secretary to read the journal of the preceding day.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lias the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Mr. & Mrs. Rob and Suzanne Alvarez, the parents of YMCA Youth Governor Gabby Alvarez, who were seated in the gallery.

The President welcomed and introduced Mr. Sam Reed, former Washington Secretary of State and current Chairman of the Board of Directors for the YMCA Youth and Government program, who was seated in the gallery.

The President welcomed and introduced Miss Gabby Alvarez, Youth Governor 2019, YMCA Youth and Government program, who was seated at the rostrum. Miss Alvarez, a senior high school student at North Star School, Mead School District, Spokane, represents the Central YMCA, YMCA of the Inland Northwest.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Youth Legislature Governor Gabby Alvarez, YMCA Youth and Government, Miss to address the Senate.

Youth Governor Alvarez: "Thank you thank you for inviting me to speak today I am honored to stand before you and share my journey of becoming an advocate for student civic engagement. Youth civics day is more than a single day. It is a continuous campaign of students becoming leaders in their community and a voice for the issues that affect them. Each generation must learn the importance of being involved in the government for we are all members in our democracy. Eighteen years ago, my birth parents wrapped to me in a black leather jacket, placed me in a box on the streets a southern China, and disappeared into the shadows of the city.

I was left orphaned and alone. A nameless girl in a country where they have no voice. But, instead of being confined to an orphanage, I like many people before me made a journey across the ocean to a new life in America, a new home, a family, and a new name. I stand before you now as a citizen in the greatest country in the world where I have a right to participate in my government without fear, without apprehension, and without persecution. A letter from the White House the accompanied my United States certificate of citizenship says 'Americans are united across the generations by grand and enduring ideals. The grandest of these ideals is an unfolding promise that everyone belongs that everyone deserves a chance and that no insignificant person was ever born. As you begin to participate in our democracy remember that what you do is as important as anything the government does. Welcome to the joy, responsibility, and freedom of American citizenship.' I have learned to participate and to take an interest in my government because of programs like Y.M.C.A. Youth and Government. This program empowers young people by teaching us the joy and responsibility we have in becoming involved in our government. The first words in the Constitution are 'We the people' and that 'we' includes us as students.

Every week during the school year eighth graders through high school met with a local delegation to write and propose bills and prepare for session. The experience concludes in May with a trip to our Capitol where we replicate our state government. During those four days we are not sophomores or juniors but are senators, representatives, attorney general, secretary of state and most importantly we are leaders. In 2017, I was in this Chamber as a Youth Senator Alvarez. It was sitting at Senator Hawkins's desk looking up at this rostrum that I realized the amazing opportunity that Youth and Government offers. I know that the rest of my fellow youth senators felt the same way for just being able to debate in this chamber filled us with awe. For many delegates it isn't until they walk the halls of our state capitol and sit on the floor of the House and Senate that they fully understand the ownership they have in their government.

Five years ago when I joined the program, I was an extremely shy and introverted person. Whether it was because I only heard Chinese when I was a baby or the many untreated ear infections I had when I was in the orphanage, fate would have it that I would struggle with a speech impediment. I have been mocked by kids and adults, told that I sound weird, and that I really should get myself fixed. As if I was a broken toy that was useless because I couldn't pronounce my Rs. When you fail to be understood, it is easier to stand in the corner than speak up and risk being made fun of. However, my parents knew that I would never grow if I sat in a corner and refused to speak up. So, in the eighth grade they enrolled me into the Y.M.C.A. Youth and Government program. At my first meeting, I had to debate ice cream versus popsicles and when I spoke the most amazing thing happened. No one laughed or snickered and the family nods and smiles motivated me to keep going and finish my thoughts. The Y.M.C.A. advisors constantly encourage my efforts of public speaking and I found that the more I spoke out the braver I became. Slowly, I began to realize that I indeed had a voice and I could use it to encourage others.

Today, I have gone from being a shy and timid eighth grader in the program to being elected youth governor for the 72nd session of the Y.M.C.A. Youth Legislature. I have had the privilege of representing our state in Washington D.C. where I spoke to members of Congress at the Capitol. I also made lasting friendships with other Y.M.C.A. youth governors at our national conference. But, even more than that I have had the incredible opportunity to speak to other teenagers across our state, encouraging them to become involved in this program and their government. A democracy cannot exist without its citizens choosing to step up and be informed and be engaged. I hope to not only inspire others but also let them know that we as students can make a difference in our communities and our government.

This is our future. This is our voice and it is our America. Thank you and God bless the great state of Washington.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “I hope you guys were taking notes on how to give a speech. That was unbelievable. Thank you to Governor Alvarez. Thank you the Y.M.C.A. Youth and Government program for doing this tremendous public service to our state.”

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced members of the Washington World Fellows program who were seated in the gallery.

MOTIONS

Pursuant to Rule 46, on motion of Senator Liias, and without objection, the standing committees of the senate were granted special leave to meet during the day’s floor session.

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Wagoner moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION

By Senators Wagoner, Padden, Holy, Hunt, Salomon, McCoy, Mullet, Wellman, Van De Wege, Brown, Walsh, Becker, Schoesler, O’Ban, Wilson, C., Palumbo, Short, Lovelett, Kuderer, Pedersen, Das, Cleveland, Dhingra, Takko, Nguyen, Ericksen, Warnick, Rivers, Hawkins, Zeiger, Liias, and Saldaña

WHEREAS, By an act of Congress, the birthday of President George Washington has been officially observed on the third Monday of February since 1971; and

WHEREAS, The holiday has become known as Presidents’ Day, for it also commemorates the birthday of President Abraham Lincoln; and

WHEREAS, George Washington, who was born on February 22, 1732, served as the commander-in-chief of the Continental Army during the American Revolution, was elected the first President of the United States in 1789, and reelected in 1792; and

WHEREAS, The first town to sponsor a public celebration of Washington’s Birthday was Richmond, Virginia in 1782, and celebrations became even more popular during Washington’s first term in office, and after his death in 1799, Congress passed a resolution calling on the nation to observe the date of his birth; and

WHEREAS, Unofficial celebrations carried on until 1885, when action by Congress made the observance official throughout the nation; and

WHEREAS, Abraham Lincoln, born on February 12, 1809, was elected to the Illinois State Legislature at the age of 25, served in the United States House of Representatives from 1847 to 1849, and gained such esteem while campaigning for the United States Senate in 1858 that he received the nomination for President at the Republican Convention in 1860; and

WHEREAS, Abraham Lincoln’s accomplishments in his first term as our nation’s 16th President included his Emancipation Proclamation of January 1863, which freed five million slaves; and

WHEREAS, In December 1864, shortly after his reelection, President Lincoln announced his plan for the Reconstruction of the Nation following the Civil War; and

WHEREAS, In January 1865, less than three months before his assassination, President Lincoln signed the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution, which abolished slavery in the United States, and which led to the Fourteenth Amendment with its guarantee of civil rights; and

WHEREAS, President Lincoln’s birthday is still observed as a holiday in several states, while in the state bearing President Washington’s name, the Great Emancipator is remembered on Presidents’ Day, which also recognizes and honors all those who have come after to serve in the highest office in the United States;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That in celebration of Presidents’ Day the Washington State Senate express its gratitude to all persons who have served as President for their many services to our nation.

Senator Wagoner spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8617.

The motion by Senator Wagoner carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

Senator Wilson, C. moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION

By Senators Wilson, C., Liias, Hasegawa, and Saldaña

WHEREAS, Civic education is the foundation for an informed citizenry and a representative democracy; and

WHEREAS, It is vital to provide strong educational resources to teach students and the public about our Constitution and instill youth with the value of meaningful participation in our democratic institutions and processes; and

WHEREAS, Civic education empowers us to be well-informed, active citizens and gives us the opportunity to change the world around us; and

WHEREAS, Students who receive a comprehensive civics education learn to think critically about the world around them, enabling them to become informed and proactive voters as well as participants in our democratic process; and

WHEREAS, Civic education is vital in imparting a fundamental understanding of the political processes and of the role of legislators in a representative democracy; and

WHEREAS, By gathering those dedicated to civic education in the state Capitol, we recognize the significance of civic education in Washington state and establish a forum for civic educators across the state to collaborate with legislators and other supporters; and

WHEREAS, Many organizations such as the Legislative Youth Advisory Council, We the People Foundation, Washington State Council of Social Studies, 4-H Know Your Government, YMCA Youth & Government, Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Office of the Secretary of State, Washington State Historical Society, Legislative Scholars Program, Washington State Boys and Girls State, League of Women Voters, TVW, and others are dedicated to prioritizing civic education for students

2019 REGULAR SESSION

across Washington state; and

WHEREAS, The contributions of committed teachers, principals, community leaders, parents, state employees, and volunteers help accomplish the goal of these laudable organizations to create an engaged citizenry;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on February 18, 2019, the Washington state Senate reaffirm the importance of civic education and recognize the dedication of civic educators across the state to serve and inform all Washingtonians; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington state Senate honor, thank, and celebrate the civic educators and civic education organizations of our state.

Senator Wilson, C. spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8618.

The motion by Senator Wilson, C. carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "The President would just like to echo that and say, thank the Senate once again, not only for the Youth and Government program that we heard about so eloquently from Governor Alvarez, the World Fellows Program that I mentioned to you but also LYAC, the Legislative Youth Advisory Council Program and of course our own Senate Page Program. All of these are wonderful initiatives that you all have supported and they speak precisely to the resolution that you just adopted."

MOTION

Senator Darneille moved adoption of the following resolution:

By Senators Darneille, Hasegawa, Saldaña, and Liias

WHEREAS, The celebration of Children's Day reminds us that children deserve faith, hope, love, and commitment to their future; and

WHEREAS, Since 1925, Children's Day has been celebrated worldwide to promote the welfare of and mutual understanding and togetherness between the world's children; and

WHEREAS, Professor and author Dr. Jess Lair wrote "Children are not things to be molded, but are people to be unfolded"; and

WHEREAS, The Senate recognizes that children represent the future of our state, nation, and world; and

WHEREAS, This body has observed Children's Day since 1995 to commemorate the special place children hold in our hearts and communities and to remind us to keep children central to our efforts; and

WHEREAS, Writer Richard L. Evans noted "While we try to teach our children all about life, our children teach us what life is all about"; and

WHEREAS, Washington state's children must be cherished and deserve a nurturing, protective environment where they are able to flourish and realize their full potential; and

WHEREAS, Educator Maria Montessori said "The greatest gifts we can give our children are the roots of responsibility and the wings of independence"; and

WHEREAS, The Senate recognizes that every child in Washington state deserves access to quality education, wholesome recreation, excellent health care, and safe communities; and

WHEREAS, Author C.S. Lewis once observed that "Children are not a distraction from more important work. They are the most important work"; and

WHEREAS, Children are the leaders of tomorrow, and it is our solemn obligation to instill in them the necessary values, convictions, goodwill, and fortitude so that they can continue the wonderful legacy of freedom, peace, and prosperity inherited from those who came before us; and

WHEREAS, Every child deserves the chance to succeed, and their future success depends on education and guidance from early childhood onward; and

WHEREAS, There can be no better measure of our governance than the way in which we treat our children; and

WHEREAS, This body recognizes that in order to thrive as a state and nation, we must empower children through policies that foster their success; and

WHEREAS, The Senate continues to support the goals of Children's Day and welcomes children into the Senate Chamber so they may witness the legislative process;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate encourage all Washingtonians to celebrate children on Children's Day and throughout the year by spending more quality time with them, by emphasizing their special place in our lives, and by working together daily to strengthen the foundation upon which our children will build and sustain their future.

Senators Darneille, Sheldon and Palumbo spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8619.

The motion by Senator Darneille carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.
